“ Every year, some very fortunate people like me receive a service dog from FSD because of awesome donors. During my months in the hospital, there wasn't an expectation of survival. One night, I was thinking, 'Should I give up?' because it was so hard and it hurt so much. But I thought about my family and about the service dog that I didn't even know. You helped me before I even met Quest. It was the hope that you would provide me with a partner that lifted me up in tough times. But there are many more people waiting for a service dog. ”
