Form 990, Part III - Additional Information

In Jan-Sept 2024, Freedom Service Dogs placed 34 dogs where they can have the most impact for individuals and communities.

-- 19 FSD Service Dogs were placed with the following graduates, helping them to experience greater independence, self-confidence, happiness, and hope: 10 veterans, 5 people with mobility challenges, and 4 children and young adults with neurodevelopmental disabilities.

-- 5 FSD Professional Therapy Dogs were placed with mental health professionals or first responders where they work alongside their handler to provide therapeutic support in places like police departments, fire stations, hospitals, schools, assisted living facilities, and more.

-- 10 FSD Skilled Companion Dogs were placed with veterans and/or military families where they provide unconditional love, comfort, and support. These are dogs that were not qualified to become FSD Service Dogs, but were qualified to be loving companions.

During this period, 47 purpose-bred puppies born at FSD entered the service dog training program. Carefully managing the genetics, temperament, health care, and early training and socialization of the service dog candidates enables FSD to graduate more successful service dogs in a timelier manner.

380 dedicated volunteers gave freely of their time and talent to help in all facets of operations at FSD. Of these, 140 volunteers raised puppies, providing endless hours of socialization, training, and round-the-clock care. Volunteers at our facility assisted with dog care, dog training, dog socialization, public education, administration, event support, community outreach, and more.

In addition to placing 34 teams in 2024, FSD provided lifetime support, including follow-up training and recertification, to 163 existing teams to ensure that graduates and their assistance dogs continue to have a positive partnership by teaching dogs new tasks, brushing up on skills, and addressing any changing needs of the handler.

Each of our service dogs, professional therapy dogs, and skilled companion dogs is placed with the individual or situation where they can have the greatest impact. At Freedom Service Dogs, we understand that these puppies with a purpose are far more than highly-trained assistance dogs; for those we serve, they are everyday game changers.
